

Journal of the American Society for Church Growth

---

Volume 18 | Issue 2

Article 1

---

4-1-2007

Introduction

Gary L. McIntosh

Biola University, gary.mcintosh@biola.edu

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalarchives.apu.edu/jascg>

Part of the Christianity Commons, Practical Theology Commons, and the Religious Thought, Theology and Philosophy of Religion Commons

---

Recommended Citation

McIntosh, G. L. (2007). Introduction. Journal of the American Society for Church Growth, 18(2). Retrieved from <https://digitalarchives.apu.edu/jascg/vol18/iss2/1>

This Editorial is brought to you for free and open access by APU Digital Archives. It has been accepted for inclusion in Journal of the American Society for Church Growth by an authorized editor of APU Digital Archives. For more information, please contact sharrell@apu.edu.

Introduction

Gary McIntosh

The Church Growth Movement has lost a key figure in the passing of Win Arn. This issue of the Journal of the ASCG is dedicated to his memory, and it includes a number of articles and short remembrances of the impact had made on churches around the world. As an aid to those who may not have known Win Arn, or been aware of his impact, we are reprinting a earlier article "A Short History of Winfield C. Arn and the Institute for American Church Growth."

Two additional articles fill of the remainder of this issue. The first is a personal reflection by Waldo J. Werning on his pilgrimage in church growth. The second is a recounting of "The Korean Pentecost" by Elmer Towns.

—Editor

---

Journal of the American Society for Church Growth, Spring 2007